* Congregational Reading:

Luke 2:8-11

In the same region there were some shepherds staying out in the fields and keeping watch over their flock by night.

And an angel of the Lord suddenly stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them; and they were terribly frightened.

*But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold,
I bring you good news of great joy which will be for all the people;
for today in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior,
who is Christ the Lord.*

If you consistently give a portion of your income to the work of the Lord here at FBC, thank you. If you aren't regularly giving please consider the Bible's instruction to do so (1Corinthians 16:2), "On the first day of every week, each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with his income." This passage encourages us to give regularly, individually and proportionately, back to God.

*For in this hope we were saved.
But hope that is seen is no hope at all.
Who hopes for what they already have?
But if we hope for what we do not yet have,
we wait for it patiently.*
